

Plant Pathology Seminar Schedule Fall 2017

Seminars are held Tuesdays at 3:30 in 150 Russell Labs, unless otherwise noted.

Student speaker names are in red; off-campus speakers are in blue

Date	Speaker (campus host)	Title
Sept 12	Departmental Poster Session (in 584 Russell Labs)	Breaking News: Research we presented at 2017 meetings
Sept 19	Tomas Rush	Exploring rewards and sanctions in the ectomycorrhizal symbiosis
Sept 26	Frank Wong (P. Koch) Bayer CropScience	What Color is Your Hymenium? Thoughts on getting, keeping and changing jobs for budding plant pathologists
Oct 3	Joanna Tannous (Keller lab postdoc)	Penicillium expansum catabolite repressor CreA is essential for fungal development, pathogenesis and patulin biosynthesis
Oct 10	Damon Smith	Using data-driven strategies to help farmers manage disease
Oct 17	Daniel A. Levitis (Pringle lab scientist)	Do lichens suffer from aging? A long term field study
Oct 24 @ 7:30 PM	'Food Evolution' documentary film & panel	7:30 PM Marquee Cinema Union South
Oct 31	Brian Mueller	Integrated management of winter wheat diseases in Wisconsin
Nov 7	Nian Wang (C. Allen) U. Florida	Exploration of the citrus Huanglongbing pyramid: Insights into pathogenesis mechanisms and disease control
Nov 14	Michael J. Havey USDA-ARS / UW Hort Dep't	Successes and set-backs in breeding onion for multiple pest resistances
Nov 21	Peter Ojiambo (A. Gevens) NC State University	Understanding the resurgence of cucurbit downy mildew in the United States
Nov 28	Ron Townsend	Dollar spot severity and oxalic acid production affected by nitrogen fertilization in creeping bentgrass
Dec 5	John Couture (K. Gold) Purdue University	Title to be determined

Seminar Organizer and PP923 Instructor: Caitilyn Allen, callen@wisc.edu, 608-556-3369